Going into this 20 Person chaos campaign you character would be Level 10. This means you are someone of note within this world. Give a brief description of your life before the events of this campaign. *

I am a 31-year-old male human moon druid coming from a wealthy family. I once was an adventurer exploring all around the world until mine collapsed. 5 years ago, I came to visit my parents after a long journey only to find out their dismembered bodies on the floor of the luxurious mansion my parents lived in. A gang from the area brutally murdered them to take their fortune. I grieved for days. I joined a seemingly a fair body of religion to cope with my despair. The priest of the temple noticed my anger towards the gang, and my deep desire to perish them all. So, he lent me power of their god and people to wipe them out. I was too consumed by the urge to avenge, did not notice that I bargained my parents' and my souls. Since then, my parents' souls are bound to this demon, and the demon is waiting for me to die, so he can claim mine too. So, I am pretending to be on board but if I make it to the end I will turn on them to fulfill my wish.

What fears does your character have? (Ideally, we have at least one for each of you. I won't fight you if your character is actually really cool and isn't afraid of anything. But it will cause you to have less potential to have moments crafted for your character as we go forward.) *

I fear woman of all age groups except my mom. So, I will just straight up ignore them, but inside, I am freaking out. There is no reason; I was like this since my birth.

I fear color #880808(blood red) since I witnessed the murder scene. I am not afraid of the actual blood unless it is actually in the shade of #880808. Not similar, it has to be in this exact hex code.

What are your characters hopes and dreams? *

My dream is to continue my adventure to explore the ends of the world.
I hope to have multiple gay relationships all around the world because I do not wish to settle down.

How does your character feel about their chances? (You see many other strong individuals amongst you at the base of the tower, does your character have confidence or are they nervous?) *
